

New Programs

The Recreation Department is requesting approval of new programs – Rec. Talks & How to get the most out of your digital devices.

Rec Talks

Rec talks will be held at the Recreation Center or other locations regarding various topics. There will be no charge to the public and will offer educational information or presentations.

The Rec Talks are a series of presentations centered around community based recreation topics. The Rec Talks could expand to financial, computer and other topics based on needs.

Our first presentation will focus on the history of Convention Hall. Participants will share their memories, stories, etc. on a variety of topics including sports, entertainment, community and politics.

Ages: All

Date: April 29, 2020 Times: 1:00-2:00 pm Price: Free

Location: Recreation Center

How to get the most out of your digital devices

Seniors in a digital world can easily be overwhelmed by all the new technology around us. This beginner to novice level tutorial, led by high school students, will help seniors learn how to navigate their digital devices. Those also wishing to set up social media accounts will be walked through the process.

Class Requirements: Must have a digital device such as a tablet, laptop, or smart phone. When registering, participants must note the type and model of device they have and what social media accounts they would like set up.

Ages: Any

Date: April 4, 2020 Time: 10:00am-11:00am Price: Free

Instructor: High School Volunteers Location: Recreation Center

Full Day Sports Camp

The Recreation Department is looking to work with an outside vendor to offer a full day Sports Camp for one week tentatively August 24-28, 2020. The Department is looking to obtain a percentage split of the net revenue received.