Saratoga Springs, N.Y. - The Saratoga Springs Arts Commission in partnership with Skidmore College invites the community to a series of quarterly 'town hall' style discussions with local arts leaders focused on four distinct topics: Arts for Young People, Performing Arts, Creative Collaborations, and Public Art. Panelists specializing in each of these areas will lead conversations addressing community impact, accessibility, and ideas for art in Saratoga. The Arts Commission is excited to continue to provide the public with information about our city's vital and vibrant cultural landscape and an open dialogue with its leaders.

These online talks will be Zoom webinars and are free and open to all!

The Chat will be open for community participation
