Saratoga Springs, N.Y. – Jeff Furman, the founder of Rejoice The Vote, will be at Saratoga Springs City Hall, at the front steps, on Tuesday, June 8th at 4pm to present to Mayor Meg Kelly, The Votingest City Award. This award is given to two cities, one small and one large, in New York State, which achieved having the highest percentage of eligible voters who have voted.

Jeff Furman has bridged the gap between business and social justice movements for many years, serving on the board of Ben & Jerry's for 4 decades and serving as the President of the Ben & Jerry's Foundation.

Rejoice The Vote is dedicated to enhancing voter participation through a combination of honoring those who have dedicated their lives to democracy, to rewarding those doing that work now, and to encourage young people to participate.

Mayor Meg Kelly, said, "I am honored to be accepting this award on behalf of the voting residents of Saratoga Springs. I am, once again, very proud of the accomplishments of this great city."
