Note – Ordinary maintenance or repair that does not involve a change in material, design or outer appearance is exempt from Historic or Architectural Review.

4. DESIGN GUIDELINES:

The Design Review Commission will evaluate whether the proposed action (construction, alteration or demolition) is compatible with existing structures and surrounding properties using the following criteria:

- Height – consistent with historic form and context of site and surrounding properties
- Scale – relationship of structure and its architectural elements to human size, form, perception
- Proportion – relationship among building elements including front façade, windows, and doors
- Rhythm – pattern resulting from repeating building elements such as door/window openings, columns, arches, and other façade elements
- Directional Expression – compatibility with horizontal & vertical expression of surrounding structures
- Massing & Open Space – relationship of structure to open space between it and adjoining buildings
- Setback – compatibility with surrounding structures
- Compatibility of the following with surrounding structures/properties:
 - Major building elements (storefronts, doors, windows, roof)
 - Building materials
 - Color – (in non-residential zoning districts only)

5. DECISIONS: The Design Review Commission may approve, approve with conditions, or disapprove an application. The DRC may impose appropriate conditions and safeguards in connection with its approval including nature/quality of materials, manner of construction, and design. An applicant may appeal a denied DRC application on the grounds of hardship.

Application approvals shall expire within 18 months of approval unless the project has sufficiently commenced (i.e. building/demolition permits obtained and construction/alteration begun). Applicants may request up to 2 extensions if requested before expiration date of prior approval.

6. SUBMISSION DEADLINE: Check City’s website (www.saratoga-springs.org) for application deadlines and meeting dates.
